

The do not call program has been a great one and it would be a shame if it was weakened or overturned. I do not like to be bothered in my home with unwanted phone calls.